WalkWise Overview: For those of you who haven't visited the area before, Thorns Hall is in the lovely market town of Sedbergh with idyllic real ale pubs and an array of independent shops. Sedbergh sits at the foot of the beautiful Howgills and is also on the edge of the NW corner of the Yorkshire Dales. Its position also enables us to access Haweswater on the western Lake District as well as the stunning country around Cartmel in the Southern Lakes and Arnsdale and Silverdale on the edge of Morecambe Bay. With all this scenery we definitely won't be short of options. This HF centre lies on the outskirts of this small market town and allows us to get the very best out of this wonderful area. With a week of walking ahead of us, some days we will start directly from the house, perhaps tackling the Calf itself, whilst on other days we may drive a short distance to explore a little further afield.
